

Educational Materials on Disaster Preparedness for Persons with Disabilities

“A research on Disaster Preparedness and Community Inclusion for Persons with Disabilities”
 Yayoi Kitamura (National Rehabilitation Center for Persons with Disabilities)
 kitamura-yayoi@rehab.go.jp
<http://www.rehab.go.jp/ri/fukushi/ykitamura/kitamurayayoi.htm>

Multimedia DAISY and PDF (Japanese and English)

“Disaster Prevention and Support Handbook for People with Autism”

Japan Autism Society

Over 20,000 access per day to this manual was reported in the 2011 Great East Japan Earthquake. 43 pages.

Multimedia DAISY and PDF (Japanese)

“Disaster and Autistic Spectrum Disorders”

Asami Maekawa (Tokyo Woman's Christian University)

This is a manual on disaster preparedness for children with special needs, their family and their community, which are lessons from their experience of the Great East Japan Earthquake. 16 pages.

PDF and JPEG images of figures (Japanese)

“Disaster preparedness for persons with autistic disabilities: Save lives in case of gigantic earthquakes”

Yayoi Kitamura and Yoko Gorie

This is a self study brochure for students and adults with autistic spectrum disorders who commute to schools and offices independently. Reader's own version based on the brochure is strongly recommended to edit by themselves. 32 pages.

PDF leaflet to know the outline quickly (Japanese)

“Disaster preparedness for persons with special needs and their family”

“Support for persons with special needs in evacuation shelters”

“Support for persons with special needs staying at home”

Yayoi Kitamura

This manual is designed for community residents to learn how to support persons with disabilities.

iPad Application “Go Bag to defend myself”

Asami Maekawa (Tokyo Woman's Christian University),
 Azuma Kawaguchi, Takeshi Ogasawara, Mari Tsubonuma (Joshi University of Arts and Design)

Based on “Cards to defend myself”, this application helps children to prevent themselves from disasters and to tell their needs to others.

<http://www.wasa.or.jp>

